

Garnet

Product Description

Garnet is an Abrasive rock, which is processed into a quality Abrasive Blasting material. It is commonly distinguished by its pink red colouring. This blasting media comes from the Almandine garnet family. Garnet is a tough mineral rock.

Safety

This product is free from Crystalline Silica and is developed to meet legal requirements and for operator safety.

Low Dust

The Garnet Abrasive blasting material is free from nuisance dust and respirable dust except for the dust generated in the normal process of Abrasive Blasting cleaning.

Uses

Garnet Abrasive Blasting is predominantly used for opening air blasting. But can be used for Specific industrial applications related to blasting cleaning. Available in various grit sizing to maximize effective blast cleaning.

From fine, medium to coarse grades.

Material Safety Data sheets available on Request

GRADE – A (12-25 Mesh Size)
GRADE – B (20-60 Mesh Size)
(20-40 mesh on Request)
GRADE – C (30-60 Mesh Size)
GRADE – KJ80 (80 Mesh Size)
“D Grade Now KJ80”

This is a guideline only - Sieve sizing may differ slightly from manufacturer to manufacturer.

© Copyright Syntech Distributors March 2006